will be held on June 9, 2017 at Monarch Football Field. Would you like to join our St. Francis Xavier Relay Team and help us raise money for the research and programs for the American Cancer Society? To be a part of SFX Team you must register (no registration fee). Please contact Lottie @ 304-845-4011 to register and for more information.

Our young adults are looking for a friendly, welcoming Church—a church that they can relate to and know each other by name. When we deny them this experience they will find another Christian Church to worship. Another reason why young families come to church is the uplifting music. Please offer your musical talent to God and help out our parish! We are in need of musicians. If you know anybody who can play piano, guitar, or organ, we will provide a stipend for their service.

St. Joseph Retreats

Grief is a universal experience and a natural response to many types of loss, particularly the death of a loved one.
Grief can change our lives forever. When we find ourselves encompassed in grief, it is vital to creatively live with and through this experience. During these days of reflection, we will discuss the nature of grief and explore the use of journaling, dialogue, art, poetry, and dreams as we tend our grief work and move toward greater acceptance and transformed lives.

Sr. Helen Skormisley, CSJ, and Stephanie Savitch, facili-
