When you accept help, you give a blessing.
When you heed advice, you give a blessing.
When you lose in good spirit, you give a blessing.
When you really listen, you give a blessing.

Sometimes the best way to give a blessing is to receive it.

There are openings in the Mass Intentions Book
this year for weekday masses starting June 25

From Him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Ephesians 4:16

Our parish community is a living thing. It is growing and changing and requires nurturing and care. All of us are called to contribute in our own ways. We pray, we share our talents and abilities, and we come together to make our church. It is time to renew our commitments to the ministries that enrich our community, both within the church and outside. There will be sign up sheets for service to the church at our appreciation dinner and celebrations of Baptism on July 8th. Please consider continuing your good work by adding your name, and maybe try something new. There is always room for more singers in the choir!
