Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

It is compassion which moves Jesus to speak and to act. Compassion signifies literally: "to suffer with", to assume or make ours the suffering of the other person, identifying oneself with the person, feeling the pain, the suffering. It is compassion which puts into action the power of Jesus, the power of life over death, the creative power. Compassion moves Jesus to resurrect the son of the widow. Does the suffering, the sorrow of others produce in me the same compassion? What do I do to help others to overcome the sorrow and to create a new life?—Order of the Brothers of Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel
