You have kept the good wine until now.
January 20, 2019 • Second Sunday Ordinary Time

Two weeks ago, Christians celebrated the Epiphany of the Lord, or the revelation of God’s light to the world, in the visit of the magi to the Christ child. In other centuries, the wedding at Cana was also included in the Epiphany, as were other events, such as the baptism of Jesus and even the Nativity itself. We now have separate, yearly celebrations of the Nativity, the magi, and Jesus’ baptism, but this Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, in Year C of the Lectionary cycle, is the only celebration of the wedding at Cana. Even so, wedding imagery seems to dominate the Church’s understanding of those other epiphanies, as we see in the antiphon used in the Liturgy of the Hours for the Epiphany. It refers to the Christ as the Bridegroom and the Church as his bride, and to the magi as hastening with their gifts to the royal wedding. It concludes with the rejoicing of the wedding guests.

SIGNS IN JOHN—EPIPHANIES OF THE ROYAL WEDDING

John the Evangelist describes the turning of water into wine at the wedding in Cana as “the beginning” of the signs that Jesus would perform to manifest God’s glory. “Beginning” here means more than first in a series. “The beginning” points to the source of all the signs in that “royal wedding” of divinity and humanity in Jesus as the Word become flesh, elevating and transforming everything it touches. The wine that Jesus provided was better than the water that had previously filled the stone jars, and it was better than the wine the guests had already been drinking. Early Christian writers saw in this transformation of water into wine an anticipation of Jesus’ transformation of wine into his own blood. The epiphany at Cana shows us how to become participants in that great wedding of divinity and humanity. Cleansed in holy waters and sharers in the wine that has become Christ’s blood, we too can be transformed into signs of God’s glorious love.

New DVD Series for Centering Prayer Group Begins January 15th

A small centering prayer group has met in Wheeling for over a decade and now meets in Tatum Lounge at St. Matthew’s Church on Chapline street. The group meets weekly and begins with general conversation and fellowship followed by audio tape or DVD concerning some aspect of Christian meditation or practice. This usually lasts approximately 20-30 minutes followed by 20 minutes of centering. The group will be starting a new DVD entitled THE ODYSSEY: THE FURTHER JOURNEY in which Franciscan priest, Richard Rohr, explores the spiritual genius of myths and how they come from a deep river of truth that holds insight for our own spiritual journeys. Tuesdays at 4:30. For more information contact Marc Harshman at 304-243-9711.

The Mood of Christmas

By Howard Thurman

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,

The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among people,
To make music in the heart.
