March 24, 2019 • Third Sunday of Lent

“In Sir, leave the fig tree for another year; perhaps it will bear fruit.”

Luke 13:8-9

In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about a man who had planted a fig tree in his orchard. The fig tree was not bearing fruit, and the owner was ready to give up. The gardener is more patient. He will cultivate the soil around it and fertilize it. Then, if it still fails to bear fruit, it can be cut down. The parable tells of God’s patient mercy. Like the gardener, the Lord wants us to be rooted in God’s merciful love and live fruitful lives, responsive to the grace and goodness in which we stand. Like the fig tree, however, we sometimes fail to bear good fruit, remaining dormant, living for ourselves, grumbling when we face challenges rather than relying on the fertilizer of the sacraments, especially Reconciliation and the Eucharist.

Moses was never the same after his encounter with God on Mount Horeb. We are called to be open to an encounter with God’s love every day. Lent is a season when we more consciously turn away from sin and toward God, opening ourselves to conversion, change of mind and heart, in order to be touched and changed by the Lord’s patient mercy. Doing so, we can be sure we will never be the same again.

CULTIVATING HOLY GROUND

There are three traditional Lenten practices that help us to cultivate the ground of our lives in order to grow in holiness and bear good fruit: prayer, which deepens our relationship with God and strengthens our desire to live as followers of Jesus; fasting, through which we heighten our hunger for God and become more attentive to the hunger and needs of others; almsgiving: sacrificing time, money, or resources in order to share God’s merciful love with the poor and vulnerable. As we continue to journey through Lent, cultivate the holy ground of your life through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, so that you may live fruitfully and well.

Today’s Readings: Ps 91:1-3, 14-15; Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8, 11; 1 Cor 10:1-5, 10-12; Is 13:1-9

The Moundsville Area Ministerial Association will sponsor the Procession of the Cross as well as a Noon Ecumenical Service on Good Friday, April 19. The Procession of the Cross is in imitation of Jesus’ journey to Mr. Calvary. It begins at 11:00 A.M. at Calvary United Methodist Church (1st and Cedar) and stops at six churches along the way; it includes hymns, scripture readings, and prayer. The procession ends at St. Francis Xavier Church with a noon ecumenical service. Everyone is invited to participate in this beautiful Moundsville tradition.

Consider attending a Wednesday Lenten Service. They begin at noon:
3/27 Messiah Lutheran Church
5th Street, Moundsville
4/3 Simpson United Methodist Church
800 Seventh Street, Moundsville
4/10 Trinity Episcopal Church
1 Oak Ave., Moundsville
4/19 Saint Francis Xavier Church

DVD’s of the film “Moundsville” are available in the church office for $10 each.
