Jesus' parable depicts workers who "punch the clock" at various times throughout the long day: dawn, nine, noon, three, and five o'clock. Regardless of when they began working in the vineyard, the laborers all receive the same reward. The reward seems lavish to the latecomers, of course, and shockingly unfair to the long-faithful workers. The landowner soothes his most dutiful laborers, however, delighting in them as friends and transforming their bitter confrontation into a reflection on generosity. The laborers who arrived at five o'clock might have been late to the job, but those who began at the crack of dawn were last to understand the extravagant bounty of the landowner. Seen in this way, the parable discusses not only God's generosity toward "unworthy" believers, but also the Lord's inexhaustible patience toward those who thought they had nothing more to learn.

BEGINNING AGAIN

Today's readings provide sweet refreshment to all of us who know the bitterness of discouragement. No matter how stubbornly we determine to improve ourselves, the human condition often leaves us in puddles of failure and regret. Jesus has a new plan for us. Today's Gospel parable demonstrates the mercy of God, mercy that rejoices in fresh beginnings. We take comfort in knowing that God accompanies us in our labors—and works for us—whether we struggle with caring for our bodies, striving for patience, avoiding gossip, making time for prayer, being generous, overcoming addiction, remaining in recovery, or simply attending to our daily work. Jesus shows us that he actively engages with us each time we fall short. From dawn to dusk, the Lord seeks us out, calling us to join him in the vineyard. Now, today, right this moment, is our dawn. Or our nine o'clock. Or noon? Ignore the clock! Jesus invites us to forget past failures; divine mercy wipes them away. Today's psalm insists that the "Lord is near to all who call upon him." In hope, then, we begin again.

Today's Readings: Is 55:6–9; Ps 145:2–3, 8–9, 17–18;
Phil 1:20c–24, 27a; Mt 20:1–16a

Catechetical Sunday

Teaching Ministry Is Celebrated

This weekend Catholics world-wide are observing Catechetical Sunday, which celebrates the importance of the Church's teaching ministry.

This year's theme, "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you," speaks directly to the Church's renewed focus on evangelization and how active ministry of the Word is a fundamental element of spreading the Gospel.

The theme is inspired by St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, which focuses on the essential work of catechesis and is an invitation to a whole new life given by Christ Himself. It emphasizes that living faith necessitates active witness.

The observance is considered a perfect opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. It is also a good opportunity for all to rededicate themselves as a community of faith to spreading the Word, especially parents, who are regarded as primary catechists of their children. Parents must prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith and are encouraged to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed to the next generation.

Catechesis is a distinct and special ministry in the Church. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "Catechesis is intimately bound up with the whole of the Church's life ... her inner growth and correspondence with God's plan depend essentially on catechesis."

Called are all Catholics by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to find their place in this ministry by spreading the Word through evangelization.

You can learn more about the history, purpose, and meaning of Catechetical Sunday at the USCCB's website usccb.org.

With sympathy to the family and loved ones of Jim Campbell,
our heartfelt condolences.

OUR MASS INTENTIONS

book for 2021 opens Monday, Oct. 5.

Intention forms are available in the vestibule of the church and at the entrance to Xavier Hall.

A downloadable form also can be found in the FORMS menu at our website sfxmoundsville.org.

For those unable to pick up forms at church or access the website, please contact the parish office at 304-845-1593. We will be happy to send a form to you.

WE ARE DISCERNING the idea of sponsoring a missionary family and two seminarians from the Neocatechumenal Way, which is a charism within the Catholic church dedicated to Christian formation. Members embrace a tripod ministry: Word of God - Liturgy - Community.

We will have more information in next week's bulletin.

GERRY FAUST is one of the most successful football coaches in America. From 18 years at Cincinnati's Moeller High School to head coach at The University of Notre Dame, Faust has become a popular inspirational speaker who weaves his dramatic life story into lessons for everyday life, always placing faith in God in the center of the huddle. If you haven't yet, take time this football season to join FORMED.org to enjoy Faust's inspiring story. Signups are free, easy, and only take a few minutes. Also, there are simple instructions in the FORMS menu at sfxmoundsville.org.

SFX IS POSTPONING the start of in-person PSR until Sept. 27 to voluntarily observe two-week's closing at McNinch Elementary and Sherrard Middle schools after two teachers tested positive for Covid-19. The PSR delay is out of an abundance of caution. No SFX students or families are ill. PSR families are asked to watch their e-mails for more information.

NOT POSTPONED is heartfelt gratitude for the members of our SFX teaching ministry, whom we recognize as part of Catechetical Sunday for their dedicated service to forming our parish youth.

Many thanks to Director Mary Helen Marling, Matt and Monica Miller, Christine King, Mark Hitt, and Randy and Kathy Swift. Prayers for a blessed school year.

SOME OF THE RUMMAGE sale shoppers from our Labor Day event are asking what became of our surplus inventory. Those still interested in those items can find them at the St. Vincent DePaul Thrift Store in Wheeling, which is located at 225 McColloch St - # 1, and at the Appalachian Outreach Hidden Treasures Retail Store, which is now also in Wheeling at 3643 Jacob St. A reminder that our sale raised more than $1,300 to benefit the St. Vincent DePaul Society and its work helping the needy of our area.
