It was a beautiful day for a picnic – filled with Faith, Friends, Food (and a Fun Raiser!). Thank you, Loretta Niemic for organizing it all. Almost 150 picnickers gathered beneath two shelters next to a babbling brook for Mass and a sumptuous summer feast last Sunday. This annual gathering keeps getting better and better!

Our Silent Auction, spearheaded by Paula Whitwam, was a great success. Local businesses, organizations and parishioners contributed an array of fabulous gifts - and thanks to the steely focus of 7 year old Peyton Dougherty, all prizes were distributed fairly! Proceeds from this auction were given to Rosemary and Veronica DiCola who continue to deal with the aftermath of their devastating house fire.

Our 50/50 Drawing generated a total of $722 this year. And the winner was .... Denise Phillips! (Her grandchildren are REALLY happy about this unexpected turn of events.)

As part of the way we are celebrating being 100 years old, our parish is donating its share of the raffle to the Fun Raiser mobile playground to help it continue raising fun with children throughout the area (including in our own parking lot every Thursday). Thank you Gabby Marshall!
